

Your Work Environment:

As you consider different careers and occupations, it might be helpful to think about the type of environment you would feel most comfortable in, that would allow you to do your best work.

To get you thinking about this highlight or underline any of the following criteria that you fell are the best fit for you:

Hours of Work:

More than a 40 hour week
Less than a 40 hour week
Flexi-time
9 to 5 days
Work at your own pace

Geogrpahy:

Work in a large city
Work in the countryside
Travel to foreign countries
Short commute
Close to family and friends

Management Style:

Team work focused
Regular reviews
Left to my own devices
Involved manager

Opportunities:

Continuing Education
Peer mentoring system
Advancement
Variety of positions

Business Environment:

Formal and polite
Very laid back
Mostly out of doors
Mostly office based

Remunerations:

Good benefits
Twice industrial wage
Enough to live on
Incentives and bonuses
Over time options

Business Type:

International
Local
Well established
New & Innovative

Working with others:

Work alone
Work in tight knit team
A lot of customer interaction

What are the three most important criteria about your working environment and why?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____