BODY OF LESSON

TEACHER
ACTIVITIES

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Teacher defines the term ‘value’ for the students and gives examples of various values.
(Definition: Values are principles or standards of behaviour; one’s judgement of what is important in life, i.e. Dependability. Reliability. Loyalty. Commitment. Open-mindedness. Consistency. Honesty).

Students receive clarity on the term ‘values’.

Teacher asks students to think about someone they know who is a role model/inspirational in their life (such as a family member, an older friend, a coach or a teacher – show PowerPoint slide with list of values). They should tell the person beside them about this person. Teacher can then encourage students to share their person with the class.
Next teacher asks students to discuss with the person beside them (and then the class) how this person’s positive qualities affects them personally.

In pairs, students tell the person beside them about this inspirational person.
They also discuss how this person’s positive qualities affects them personally. They think about how they feel when they are with someone who is trustworthy, or how they react to a person’s positive outlook.
For example:
“Someone who demonstrates patience influences me to be less irritable when things don’t go my way.”

Direct students to Worksheet on “Radiant Role Models”.

Students choose a personal role model to write about and record his or her name in the centre of the sun.
Next, describe the qualities the student appreciates about this role model inside the rays of the sun.
In the tree leaves, describe how his role model makes the student feel.
Upon completion, the student may colour the picture.
While they are doing this, they can think about the symbolism in this picture.
Compare the important effects of sunlight on leaves to a role model’s positive influence on others.

TEACHER
ACTIVITIES

Students then reflect on how they are inspirational people and complete the second part of the worksheet where they write their own names in the centre of the sun.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Students repeat the first exercise EXCEPT they themselves are now the sunlight. Students describe their own qualities which have a positive impact on others and write these qualities in the sun's rays.

In the tree leaves, students describe how they make others feel.

Upon completion, the student may colour their picture.

While they are doing this, they can think about the symbolism in this picture.

CONSOLIDATION OF LEARNING

Optional Homework Task: Students may write a letter to their 'Role Model' or the person who is at the centre of the sun on their worksheet. A template is provided for this exercise on the worksheet

Finally, the teacher re-examines the lesson's aims.
