

MY EXPLORATION OF CAREERS - WORKSHEET

THINKING ABOUT CAREERS

BRIEF

- You and your group have decided to set up and run a new charity together.
- You're going to get people with the right qualifications, skills and knowledge then launch your charity.
- You have a generous benefactor who is going to provide the money you need in the first few years so you can get the charity up and running and pay yourselves a salary.
- However, after that you'll need to raise the money needed to keep the charity going and pay your salaries.
- There are different job roles involved in running a charity.
- You and your friends have decided that you will each take on a different one.
- Each friend will get the qualifications and/or training they need to do that job and get a few years' experience in the job working for a different employer before you set up your charity.
