To whom it may concern,

Laurence Ryan has successfully completed the Senior Cycle programme in St. Ciaran's Community School.

Over this period he has shown himself to be a pleasant, positive minded and good-humoured student. At all times his relationships with both staff and peers has been one of mutual respect.

He has overcome numerous obstacles and managed to adapt well to the school environment, an indication of his determination to meet difficulties head on.

His academic performance at School matches that of many of his fellow students, and is all the more impressive given that he has Dyslexia. His attainment of an honour on the English Paper is a testament to this. In terms of other subjects, he seems to have a strong preference for Maths, evidence of his very logical and pragmatic approach to work and life. His maths result in the Leaving Cert would not, I feel, be a fair reflection of his ability.

Socially, he is quiet active and has been an enthusiastic member of the local football club for the past three years. He was a member of the winning team for the Under 17's. He also has considerable experience working in a local restaurant.

He has displayed a strong interest in the field of Business and would be very suited for any course which focuses on this area.

Laurence is a capable and ambitious young man and will be an asset to any employer.
