

LCVP

About the LCVP in St. Ciaran's

"The Leaving Certificate Vocational Programme (LCVP) is an intervention designed to enhance the vocational dimension of the Leaving Certificate (established).

The primary goal of the LCVP is to prepare young people for adult life by ensuring that they are educated in the broadest sense, with an ability to cope and thrive in an environment of rapid change. Participants in the programme are encouraged to develop skills and competencies fundamental to both academic and vocational success."

Throughout the programme students are encouraged to:

- Be innovative and enterprising
- Take responsibility for their own learning
- Adapt to changing circumstances
- Evaluate data and devise solutions to problems
- Communicate their thoughts and ideas effectively
- Word process CVs, letters, reports and create illustrated documents
- Send and receive e-mail messages

- Access and use relevant information from the Internet and enter, edit, store, retrieve and print information
- Work with others as part of a team
- Investigate and plan career options
- Use information and communications technologies
- Investigate local businesses and community enterprises
- Learn from their experiences

These skills and qualities are equally relevant to the needs of those preparing for further education, seeking employment or planning to start their own business.

The strong vocational focus of the LCVP is achieved by arranging Leaving Certificate subjects into Vocational Subject Groupings (VSGs) and through the provision of additional courses of study in work preparation and enterprise known as the Link Modules.

Programme Requirements:

- At least five Leaving Certificate subjects, one of which must be Irish
- Two of the below subjects must be selected from one of the designated Vocational Subject Groupings
- Two Link Modules: Preparation for the World of Work and Enterprise Education
- A recognised course in a Modern European Language other than Irish or English

Vocational Subject Groupings (VSGs)

Two subjects are selected from one of the Vocational Subject Groupings. These subjects provide students with a focus for developing vocational skills and exploring their career options.

The Specialist Groupings consist of subjects which complement one another naturally. The Services Groupings comprise subjects which complement one another in a commercial context.

The Link Modules

Students taking the Leaving Certificate Examination from 2004 onwards will follow two Link Modules over the course of the two years.

Link Module I – Preparation for the World of Work

Students will research and investigate local employment opportunities, develop job seeking skills such as letter writing, CV presentation, interview techniques; gain valuable practical experience of the world of work; interview and work shadow a person in a career area that interests them

Link Module II – Enterprise Education

Students will be involved in organising visits to local business and community enterprises; meet and interview enterprising people on site and in the classroom; plan and undertake interesting activities that will build self-confidence, creativity, initiative and develop teamwork, communication and computer skills.

Typical LCVP Students

Typically, LCVP students take seven Leaving Certificate Subjects plus the Link Modules

Information and Communications Technology

Students taking the LCVP will have an opportunity to develop and apply their IT skills.

Teaching and Learning

The use of active teaching and learning methodologies is encouraged across the LCVP curriculum. Experiences such as work placement, career investigation, mini-enterprise, business and community visits are an integral part of the programme. The Link Modules encourage students to apply the knowledge and skills they have acquired through their Vocational Subjects and in other areas of their Leaving Certificate. Vocational relevance is enhanced by putting in place opportunities for students to plan, organise and engage in active learning experiences inside and outside the classroom.

Typical LCVP activities may include:

Conducting Investigations – businesses, community enterprises, agencies
Arranging Visits out of school to sites of interest in the context of conducting investigations
Inviting Visitors to the classroom - adults other than teachers as resource visitors
Working in Teams – on projects and investigations
Organising Enterprise Activities – setting up projects as vehicles of learning
Actively preparing for work – career investigation, job search, practice at interviews
Experiencing the world of work, work experience, work simulation, work shadowing
Making presentations to adults and peers
Using Information and Communications Technology – to access, store, communicate and present information

Assessment of the Link Modules

LCVP students follow the same subject syllabi and are assessed in the same way as their peers in the Leaving Certificate. For the Link Modules they are assessed by Written Examination (40%) and by Portfolio of Coursework (60%).

The structure of the Written Examination is as follows:

Section A Audio Visual Presentation
Section B Case Study (received in advance by students)
Section C General Questions (4 out of 6)

The Portfolio of Coursework accounts for 60% of total marks. Students assemble the portfolio over the two years of the programme and it is assessed at the end of the final year of the Leaving Certificate.

Title: Career investigation into Computer Games Developer

Description: A person working as a game developer can specialise in many areas, including:

- ☐ Software engineering.
- ☐ Multimedia and web development.
- ☐ Systems architecture.
- ☐ Games specialist and games design.

How would you improve on this?

Skills and Qualities:

Skills:

- ☐ Computer Skills, Creative Skills, Organisational Skills.

Qualities:

- ☐ Team player, Motivated, Attention to detail.

Qualifications and Training:

Pathway 1 – Direct entry

- ☐ The course title is Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Computing in Games Development.
- ☐ The points for the last 3 years for this course are around 280 - 320
- ☐ The entry requirements are at least a H5 in two higher level papers together with at least a O5 in four ordinary level subjects. Mathematics must be at least a O3 in ordinary level.
- ☐ The college I have chosen is Dundalk Institute of Technology.
- ☐ The course duration is 4 years full time.
- ☐ The details of the course are that the degree aims to provide you with comprehensive knowledge and skill in developing software and, in particular, the opportunity to gain expertise in the development of computer games.
- ☐ The end qualification is being a Games Specialist/Designer.

Pathway 2 – Alternative Entry

- ☐ You could do a FETAC Level 5 course called Creative Media for 1 year in Cavan Institute of Technology and then get a transfer into Dundalk Institute of Technology after that year.
- ☐ The entry requirements are to have completed the leaving cert or leaving cert applied.

Interaction:

- I completed work experience at PC World in Navan during February 2021
- I liked that area of work because I worked with computers and games etc.
- I completed some work shadowing with the technician in PC World and I found that work amusing as you were working with different parts of the computer.
- The experience at PC World made me want to try my best in my Leaving Certificate to get into college and find out more about computers and games.

What I learned by the research/activity about career and oneself:(Leaving Certificate Subjects)

- The two subjects that are relevant to this career are Maths and Design and Communication Graphics.
- Maths is important because the course requirements are a O3 in Ordinary Level Maths.
- Design and Communication Graphics is important because I need Graphics Design in the course.
- The skills I have learned from these subjects are – Computer skills and Numeric skills.

(Personal aptitudes/Personal Interests)

- I have an interest for Computers and Graphics Design.
- I am reasonably good with Computers.
- I enjoy work that involves Computers and Games.
- I enjoy the Work Shadowing when I was at work in PC World.
- These interests tie in with the career because both careers involve Computers and Games.

Evaluation of Career Investigation:

Having completed my career investigation, I believe that I will pursue a career in Computing in Games Development. This investigation taught me that I would really like to go to college to study that course and make a career out of it. Without carrying out this career investigation I would not have learned that I needed some key requirements to get into the college course i.e. a H5 in two higher level subjects.

This investigation has helped me to evaluate my own skills and aptitudes because I discovered that I can use the research and computer skills that I have used while doing this career investigation in the future, at college or in a job involving computing. This career investigation helped me to expand my skills in: research, computing and communication as I had to search the internet to find out more about the course and ask my computer teacher about computing courses.

Title: Career Investigation into Primary School Teaching

Description Primary School teachers are involved in the social, intellectual, physical and moral development of pupils in their class. A teacher works with one single class for the entire academic year and is responsible for teaching a wide range of subjects on the National Curriculum.

Skills and Qualities

Skills

- A teacher requires excellent communication skills for dealing productively with young children.
- A teacher needs good organisational skills, to timetable and prioritise the workload.
- A teacher should have administrative skills for dealing with planning and paperwork.

Qualities

- Committed, as a teacher needs to be committed to her pupils well-being
- Creativity, so as to be able to engage the students in learning.
- Flexibility, for dealing with a multitude of unplanned events during a day.

Qualifications and Training

Pathway 1 – Direct Entry

- The course title is Bachelor of Education (Honours) – Primary Teaching.
- The points for the previous three years were between (2014) 465, (2015) 485 and (2016) 510.
- The entry requirements are at least two Higher Level papers at grade H5 and four Ordinary or Higher Level papers at grade H7/O6. Irish must be a Higher Level H5, English must be an Ordinary Level O6 or a Higher Level H7 and at least an O6 in Ordinary Level Maths.
- The Higher Education Institute I have chosen is Maynooth University.
- The course duration is 4 years.
- You will take Education modules and a school-based placement across all four years of this professional teaching degree, as well as a placement in the Gaeltacht for two fortnight Blocks in years one and two of the degree. Some of course content includes: Teacher as Learner, Curriculum and Methodologies and Placement learning.
- The end qualification is a Bachelor of Education.

Pathway 2 – Alternative Entry

- You could complete any level 8 honours Degree in any discipline ideally with professional involvement in the delivery of learning in education or in training. My preference would be an Arts Degree in Maynooth University.
- After that you could complete a two year course Professional Masters in Education – Primary Teaching in Hibernia College or equivalent.

Interactions:

- I completed my work experience in Lacy and Partners Solicitors in Kells from 13th April – 17th April 2021.
- I enjoyed the work experience as it prepared me for the working world.
- The experience helped me improve a number of skills including communication skills as clients came into the office and general word processing skills in typing up forms.
- The experience I gained at the Solicitors' Office made me want to work harder and try my best in my Leaving Certificate in order to gain entry into college.

What I learned by the research/activity about teaching and myself :

- All my Leaving Certificate Subjects are relevant to this career as you are seeing teaching techniques first hand.
- Irish is important because the course requirement is a H5 in Higher Level Irish.
- Maths and English are also important because as they are subjects taught in Primary School.
- I really enjoy working with young children.
- My interests, as outlined the Career's Interest Test on www.qualifax.ie tie in with this career.

Evaluation of Career Investigation:

Having completed my career investigation, I believe I will pursue a career in Primary School Education. This investigation taught me that I would really like to go to college to study that course and make a career out of it. Without carrying out this career investigation I would not have known that there are alternative entry routes for primary school teaching i.e. Hibernia College. This investigation has helped me to evaluate my own skills and aptitudes because I discovered that I can use the research and computer skills that I have learned while doing this career investigation in the future, at college, or in the classroom as a primary school teacher. This career investigation helped me expand my skills in research and communication as I had to search the internet to find out more about the course and interview my guidance counsellor about education courses.

Career Investigation

Title: Career Investigation into Agricultural Advisory

Description: An Agricultural Advisor serves a very important role for farmers. They provide advice in all matters regarding agriculture. The role involves interacting with farmers on a daily basis, organising farm talks and walks and analysing data. It is a very active career and involves travelling during the working day, attending meetings and office work in particularly busy seasons.

Skills and Qualities:

Skills

- They need to have exceptional communication skills.
- They need good analytic skills to deal with all the data and information.
- They need to have exceptional organisational skills to manage a large workload efficiently.

Qualities

- They must be enthusiastic about their job.
- They must be honest in their dealings with people.
- They must display leadership qualities as they guide people with new technologies.

Qualifications and Training:

Pathway One – Direct Entry

- The Higher Education Institute I have chosen is University College Dublin.
- The course title is Bachelor of Agricultural Science (Honours).
- The points for the previous three years were 455 (2018), 465 (2019) and 470 (2020).
- The entry requirements are passes in six subjects, two of which must be a minimum higher level H5 and a laboratory science subject where Agricultural Science is acceptable.
- The duration of this course is 4 years.
- Some of the subjects taught on the course are: Animal Biology & Evolution, Cell & Plant Biology, Physics, Discrete Mathematics, Calculus, Chemistry, Information Skills & Computer Applications and Agricultural Economics & Business.
- The course is full time and roughly forty hours a week. This includes lectures, tutorials and laboratory-based practicals and undertaking an independent study. In the third year of the course a professional work experience module must be completed. This provides opportunities to work on farms or businesses all over the world including New Zealand, Australia and USA.
- The Qualification at the end of the course is a Bachelor of Agricultural Science.

Pathway 2 – Alternative Entry

- To pursue a career as an Agricultural Advisor a Bachelor of Agricultural Science is highly advised.
- I could study a Higher Cert in Agriculture (Level 6) for two years at Dundalk Institute of Technology with the progression to the one year add on Bachelor of Agricultural Science (Level 7) at the same college. After this, if successful, I could then finish an extra year at Level 8. This would take four years to complete.
- The entry requirements for the course are five passes in the Leaving Certificate, including Maths and English.
- This pathway would include two-three days a week in Ballyhaise Agricultural College where you would gain practical experience. The remaining days are spent in DkIT.
- Similar subjects are studied in DkIT and you receive the same qualification at the end as UCD. A Bachelor of Agricultural Science (Honours).

Interactions:

- I completed my work experience in Lakeland Dairies, Bailieborough, Co. Cavan from the 16th to the 18th of February 2020.
- I enjoyed the work experience as it gave me an insight into the world of work.
- The work experience helped me have a better understanding of animal science as I was dealing with dairy cow herds and I improved my computer skills as I had to fill out forms and control laboratory machines.
- I attended the UCD Open Day on the 7th November 2021.

Insights gained from doing this research:

- I learned that three of my Leaving Certificate subjects are very important, Agricultural Science, Geography and Maths. They are all relevant to this career because they contain topics like biology, farm experience, soils and calculations.
- I learned that I need to have good communication skills as interaction with other people is a main aspect of the career.
- I carried out an interest with my guidance counsellor and scored high in the Agricultural and practical areas.

Evaluation: Having completed my career investigation, I believe that I will pursue a career in Agriculture. It made me realise that there is good employment opportunities in this sector and it would be great to work at something you have a passion for. This investigation taught me that I would like to go to College and made me focused about the Leaving Certificate. I feel my work experience module helped me greatly and by doing this investigation I could further research courses and employment in Agriculture. This career investigation has improved my research and communication skills as I had to search the internet for information and talk to my guidance counsellor for advice. Given the practical nature of this course my Agricultural Science and English will be the most relevant subjects for me.

Sources of Information: I gained information from www.qualifax.ie, www.teagasc.ie, UCD undergraduate prospectus, DkIT undergraduate prospectus and my guidance counsellor.
